

The University of Chicago
Divinity School

January 21–23, 2010

Keynote Lecture — David Tracy
University of Chicago

PARTICIPANTS INCLUDE

Daniel A. Arnold	Christine Mollier
Emma Aubin-Boltanski	Lucy K. Pick
Rachel Barney	James T. Robinson
Orit Bashkin	Richard A. Rosengarten
Thomas Burman	Joan-Pau Rubiés
Roxanne Euben	William Schweiker
Richard Fox	Larry J. Simon
W. Clark Gilpin	Lisa Voigt
Matthew Kapstein	Malika Zeghal

DECONSTRUCTING DIALOGUE

NEW PERSPECTIVES ON RELIGIOUS ENCOUNTERS:
ANCIENT, MEDIEVAL, AND MODERN

Religious dialogue is an important feature of the modern religious experience. Closely related to liberalism, ecumenism, ideals of tolerance and mutual understanding, it seems to be a product of the Enlightenment. Or is it?

For more information, visit our website. The conference is free and open to the public. Swift Hall, 1025 E. 58th Street, Chicago, Illinois 773-702-8230. Email deconstructing.dialogue@gmail.com to contact the conference organizers. Cosponsored by The Divinity School, the Martin Marty Center for the Advanced Study of Religion, the France Chicago Center, and the Franke Institute for the Humanities.

<http://divinity.uchicago.edu/martycenter/conferences/dialogue/index.shtml>